Mr. Machhindra A. Patil for Petitioner.

None for Respondents.

CORAM : F.I. REBELLO &
DR.D.Y.CHANDRACHUD,JJ.
DATED : OCTOBER 14, 2005

P.C.

. Rule. Heard forthwith.

. Notice given to Respondent Nos. 1, 2 and 3. None present. For the view to be taken, notice on other respondents dispensed with.

. The Petitioner is one of the contestant. The Petitioner had filed the petition against respondent No. 5 on the ground that Respondent No. 5 could not contest a seat reserved for S.T. as she belongs to Hindu Koli.

. The election process has commenced. If the Petitioner is finally aggrieved by the results of the Election, it will always be open to the Petitioner to file an election petition. In respect of rejection of nomination papers, several petitions have been filed before this court in the course of this week. We have dismissed the petition on the ground of alternate remedy. We therefore, find no reason to entertain the present petition. Rule discharged. No order as to costs.
